London, March 13.
Yeſterday arriv'd from Holland the Mail of Tueſday laſt.

From the Paris Gazette, dated March 17.
Perpignan, Feb. 24.

ADVICES from Barcelona, which have been confirm'd by a Perſon who came from thence the 19th Inſtant, inform us, that the Fleet after having been diſpers'd by a Storm, arriv'd there, and landed 6000 Foot. That Fleet brought no Money, and only 12000 Sacks of Meal. The Inhabitants of Barcelona ſollicited the Commadore of the Fleet to return to Italy, to fetch more Troops; and even offer'd him 12000 Crowns and all the freſh Proviſions he ſhould have need of; but he anſwer'd, that he could not diſobey the Orders he had receiv'd to make the beſt of his Way for England; and that beſides, the Ships and their Companies were in ſo bad a Condition, that it was abſolutely neceſſary for them to be at home, to be repair'd and recruited. So he took on board the Marquis das Minas General of the Portugueſe, My Lord Gallway General of the Engliſh; all the Officers of the Regiments that were ruin'd in the Battle of Almanza, the Soldiers of which have been incorporated into thoſe that are kept up; ſeveral other Officers, with all their Baggage; and even ſome Tools for breaking up Ground; and then ſail'd the 15th towards the Streights, leaving the Catalonians under extreme Conſternation. The Portugueſe Troops were not imbark'd, as was expected, and as they hop'd. The Enemy have but few Foot, but have ſtill 2400 Horſe, divided into 4 Corps of 600 Men each. Of 5 or 6 Regiments of French Proteſtants, only that of St. Amand ſubſiſts. In ſhort, according according to the Review and Computation made ſince the Arrival of the Succours from Italy, the Archduke has no more, beſides Miquelets, than 4000 Horſe and 8000 Foot, regular Troops.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated March 20.

Zurich, March 10. The Roman Catholick Cantons taking Courage from the State of Affairs in Spain, have paſs'd a new Reſolution to admit no Alteration in the Schedule for the Neutrality of Neufchatel form'd at Baden; but to cauſe it to be engroſs'd in Form, and preſented to the French Ambaſſador, with a Requeſt that he will uſe his good Offices to get it approv'd by the King his Maſter. The Cantons of Lucern, Fribourg, and Soluthurn, who were formerly in Alliance with the Princes of Neufchatel, have further reſolv'd, not to acknowledge the King of Pruſſia for Prince of Neufchatel, before France ſhall own him for lawful Prince thereof.

Hamburg, March 16. Letters from Poland ſay there had been a ſharp Action near Wilda between the King of Sweden with 6000 Horſe, and a Body of Muſcovite Horſe; that they fought deſperately and loſt many Men on both Sides, but that in the End the Muſcovites were forc'd to retire. The further March of the Swedes is like to be difficult, the Muſcovites having laid waſte the Country in their Retreat.

Mitau, March 3. The King of Sweden with 6000 of his Horſe, has had an Engagement with a ſtrong Body of Muſcovite Horſe near Wilda; and after an obſtinate Diſpute made them retire. King Staniſlaus is in Wilda. The Muſcovites have poſted the greateſt Part of their Army on their Frontiers, about Smolensko, Bichow, and Blosko; the Swedes prepare to follow them thither. But 'tis not likely any thing of Conſequence ſhould be done between them before Summer.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated March 20.

St. Malo, March 11. The 6th Inſtant 2 of the King's Frigates, viz. the Eſpion and the Parfaite, ſail'd from hence for Dunkirk. The 7th arriv'd here 6 Privateers from Breſt, which ſaild the 8th with 5 of our largeſt Privateers, all of 40 Guns each, for Dunkirk.

From the Paris Gazette, dated March 17.

Paris, March 17. We have Advice, that the Duke of Orleans arriv'd the 3d of this Month at Pampelona, whither the Duke of Berwick came the ſame Day. They had a long Conference, and were to part the next Day; the Duke of Berwick for France, and his Royal Higneſs for Madrid.

From the Leiden Courant, dated March 21.

Paris, March 16. The 11th Inſtant, the King receiv'd a Confirmation of the Arrival of the pretended Prince of Wales at Dunkirk, and that a conſiderable Number of Ships of War were come to anchor off Fort Mardyke, to block up the Harbour of Dunkirk and hinder our Fleet from going out. The Count de Forbin ſent ſeveral Couriers, to inform his Majeſty, that having taken a near View of them, he judg'd himſelf ſtrong enough to go out in ſpight of the Oppoſition they could make. Other Couriers brought the King an Account, that the pretended Prince of Wales's Phyſician had oppos'd his imbarking, declaring that he had the Meazels coming out upon him and was inclin'd to a Fever. Thoſe Couriers were ſent back with Anſwers to the ſeveral Advices they had brought. The 14th his Majeſty declar'd, that he had ſent his laſt Orders to the Count de Forbin, importing, that whatever State of Health the pretended Prince was in, he ſhould put to Sea; becauſe he had good Information that his Indiſpoſition was not ſo dangerous as his Doctor pretended. Since that Time ſeveral Couriers arriv'd, and brought an Account, that the Prince having had his Sleep orderly, was recover'd, and that the Troops would be begun to be embark'd the 16th. The Fleet conſiſts of 9 large Men of War, 15 or 16 Frigates the leaſt of which carries from 35 to 40 Guns, and 25 ſtout Privateers. The Duke of Berwick arriving here, waited on the King the 14th Inſtant, was well receiv'd, and had a long Audience. 'Tis not known whether he is to follow the pretended Prince of Wales or to command on the Frontiers of Savoy and Piemont. The Duke de Noailles will ſet out for Rouſſillon by the End of this Month. The Dauphine and the Duke of Berry are gone to Anet, to be entertain'd there by the Duke of Vendome till the 22d Inſtant.

Bruſſels, March 18. We have Advice from Paris, that the pretended Prince of Wales being recover'd from his Indiſpoſition, the Count de Forbin had Orders ſent him to ſail with the firſt fair Wind, notwithſtanding the Engliſh Ships of War that lay off Dunkirk.

The Famous Royal-Eſſence for the Hair of the Head, Perriwigs, &c. being the moſt delightfully charming Perfume in Nature, excellently beneficial to Health, and the beſt Preſerver of Hair in the World, keeping that of Perriwigs in the Curl, and all Hair from fading or changing Colour; makes the Hair of the Head grow thick, ſtrengthens and confirms its Roots, and infallibly keeps it from falling off, or ſplitting at the Ends. By its incomparable Perfume it ſtrengthens the Brain, revives the Spirits, quickens the Memory, but never raiſes the Vapours in Ladies; it alſo ſcents Handkerchiefs excellently. Since it has been ſo exceedingly admir'd and valu'd by the Nobility and Gentry, it has been baſely counterfeited, therefore take Notice that the true is to be had only at Mr. Allcraft's, a Toyſhop, at the Blue-Coat-Boy, againſt the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The Royal Chymical Waſh-Ball for the Hands and Face, largely experienc'd and daily commended by all that uſe them; and that for making the Skin ſo delicately ſoft and ſmooth, as not to be parallell'd by either Waſh, Powder, Coſmetick, &c. it being indeed a real Beautifier of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetters, Ring-worms, Morphew, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits or Redneſs of the Small-pox, &c. keeping it of a laſting and extream Whiteneſs, it ſoon alters red or rough Hands; and is admirable in Shaving the Head, which not only gives a more exquiſite ſharpneſs to the Razor, but ſo comforts the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catching Cold; and is of a grateful and pleaſant Scent, without the leaſt Grain of Mercury. Is ſold only by Mr. Allnutt, Glover, the corner of Popes-Head-Alley againſt the Royal Exchange, and at Mrs. Giles's, Millener and Toyſhop next Hercules-Pillar-Ally by the Temple, at 1 s. each, with printed Directions at large.
